

Arts Award Courses In South East

The Arts Award adviser courses: Is a course in delivering the Arts Award, a national qualification which supports young people 11-25 to develop as artists and arts leaders. Advisers support, mentor and assess young people taking the award. Arts Award offers a useful framework for arts activities and projects with young people, providing motivation and recognition. The course covers how to deliver and assess the Arts Award at Bronze and Silver level and involves presentation, case studies and discussion.
