

TITLE: Finding Funding

What is the course about?

This course draws on the experienced pool of Creative Practitioners that Future Creative has to offer. With over 120 freelance individuals we are able to draw on the experience, expertise and knowledge of these creative professionals in order to signpost the learners towards finding funding for entrepreneurial projects involving the performing arts, music, community projects etc. With the breadth of their experience to harness, participants will hear real life experiences, the challenges and the dilemmas that individuals have overcome, as well as the practical steps they took.

The course will offer the most up to date information on funding, in an ever changing landscape, and enable participants to find the best options that suit them. Future Creative's unique CV includes business, education and community and as an organisation that has sought funding in many ways we are best placed to guide the learners towards creative and entrepreneurial futures.

Objectives of the Course:

- To provide accurate and relevant funding information
- To support participants in sourcing financial support for their ideas
- To look at the breadth of activities for which funding can be found
- To allow for the creative development of participants ideas
- To offer the creative and business experiences of Future Creative's Creative Practitioners
- To support the sustainable growth of a wide range of projects
