

Interested in the arts?

We need 14-18 year olds in Kent to become Young Arts Ambassadors

Kent Arts Development Unit is looking for young people who are passionate about the arts. We want to help you to share your talents and become ambassadors for the arts in Kent. You'll get to influence arts development in the county by attending exciting events and sharing your views. You will also develop your own skills and enhance your CV.

Meet other like-minded young people

First session is Sunday
10th July

Get involved with graphic design, promotion and marketing

Investigate the powers of social networking

Get experience in events and exhibition management

Showcase your artform at a London exhibition with a private view

This project will take place across 5 sessions on Saturdays or Sundays between July and December. (not including school holidays)

Places are limited to ONE YOUNG PERSON PER SCHOOL! Those interested must apply by sending a short expression of interest by the

20th of June to explore@future-creative.org

